

Intellectual Property Digital Library

New on the IPDL Site

The PCT Full Text Database Prototype is now available. [\[Account Access\]](#) [\[Guest Access\]](#)
This prototype of the PCT Gazette is available for test purposes only. Among the changes incorporated in the prototype are changes to the layout and format of the data, access to data concerning republished PCT applications (including images of republished pages), and searchable access to the full text of description and claims. The prototype will be available in parallel with the current PCT Gazette until the completion of the necessary testing and consultation, after which it is planned that the prototype, as modified as a result of the testing and consultation, will supersede the current PCT Gazette. Comments concerning the new prototype may be submitted to pctlegaldiv@wipo.int.

The Intellectual Property Digital Library Web site provides access to various intellectual property data collections currently hosted by the World Intellectual Property Organization. These collections include Hague, JOPAL (non-patent reference), Madrid and PCT data and support fully searchable information retrieval and display by users on demand. Access to the Digital Library is available to the general public free-of-charge. The services are operational and are updated on a daily, weekly and monthly basis respectively.

There are currently two levels of access available: Account and Guest.

- Account Access: For users with accounts, a search query history is maintained across connections. To create a new (free) account, click here. If you already have an account, simply click on Search IPDL or Browse IPDL, select the database of your choice and enter your username and password at the prompt.
- Guest Access: Simply click on Search IPDL or Browse IPDL and click on 'Guest Access' alongside the database of your choice.
